Dear Danny

I would like to thank you for helping me when I had trouble with my employer. I was shocked to receive the disciplinary letter and did not know what to do. I really appreciated you attending the meeting with me as my support person and then helping me come to an agreement with my employer that fixed the problem so that I could leave there with all the stress gone and the confidential settlement you got me I thought was real good. I will definitely recommend you to anyone else with an employment problem.

Regards,
